

Thank you for your interest in this course. This is a specialized training course for those who are interested in or will be required to take one of the many English tests available today. The material and instruction provided in the class will be mainly for taking the TOEFL iBt test and the TOEIC (institution version) test, but the techniques learned may also be applied to the IELTS and the higher levels of the Test of English Proficiency (英検 2 級、準 1 級 and 1 級). Although most of the class curriculum is designed around the TOEFL test(s) students will basically learn to do the following:

1. understand academic English (e.g. lectures, discussions, etc.)
2. learn how to organize and support their opinions and ideas in both writing and speaking situations
3. learn how to take notes
4. learn how to do interview style interactions such as in the Eiken 1st level

This class is best suited for those:

1. Who wish to take their skills to advanced levels of English communication,
2. Who often attend conferences or business trips in foreign countries,
3. Who give presentations or lectures in English,
4. Who often interact with English speaking people,
5. Who wish to do research overseas, attend college, or
6. Who will be transferring to an overseas post for some time

In the beginning of the course students will learn how to take notes on simple topics provided by the teacher. These will mainly be listening exercises taken from Microsoft Encarta, TED Talks, YouTube or other materials. Students will then learn how develop a short talk including giving opinions and supporting those opinions with reasons and facts. Students will also get to participate in practice tests.

Students are asked to participate as much as possible so they can greatly develop their English communication and writing skills.

I hope you find this class interesting and useful to your English skill improvement pursuit. I look forward to meeting you!
